B) Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

People have very different ideas for their dream home. Some people dream of a simple house in a special place. Others want a large house with everything that makes life easy.

Ambani, a businessman in India, is the owner of the most expensive house in the world. Ambani's dream house is 27 floors high. It has room for everything his family needs. Ambani owns a lot of cars, so the first six floors of his house are just for cars. Another floor has a movie theatre with seats for 50 people. Two floors are for a health centre with a gym and a swimming pool. The four floors at the top of the building are for the Ambani family. From there, they have a view of the sea.

Henry, an American writer, lived from 1817 to 1862. At the age of 28, he built his dream house. It was so special as it was a very small house—just 3 metres by 4.5 metres. Inside, there were just three chairs, a bed, a table, and a small desk. The site of his house was very important to Henry. He built it in the woods close to a wonderful lake.

Mutombo, a basketball player, built a very different type of dream home. Mutombo grew up in the Congo, but he moved to America to study. He wanted to be a doctor, but instead he became a famous basketball player. Mutombo's dream home is in the Congo, and it has beds for 150 people. It also has an emergency room, many exam rooms, and some beautiful gardens. Mutombo didn't build his dream home for himself. Instead, he built it for the people in his native country. Mutombo's dream home is a hospital.
