Many people dream of going on great travel adventures. Most of them keep dreaming, others make it happen. More than 10 years ago, a Spanish lawyer named Alvaro, gave up a good job and left a comfortable life to cycle around the world. Ten years and almost 100,000 kilometres later, he is still very happy with his decision. "You live only once and life in an office isn't a life." He says.

He began his journey in South America. The first country he visited is Bolivia. Since he set out on his adventure, he has visited more than 60 countries. The journey has already taken him to three continents and most of Asia still lies ahead. He is currently cycling through Mongolia and Japan is the next country on his route.

He spends two or three months in each country, but he has never stopped off for more than five days in one place. Alvaro is getting by on a budget of three dollars a day, and he has slept in fire stations, churches, and in the mountains of Nepal. He's given more than 60 performances to 30,000 people. "My show includes juggling, music, magic acrobatics and theatre. I perform to the poorest people and my purpose is to bring them a little happiness." says Alvaro.

He explains that the trip is a way of bringing together three things he loves most in life. "Cycling's in my blood. I'm a born clown and I enjoy helping people." He is supported by his fans and his aim is to bring a smile into the lives of the people.
