The Topic

Do you know that peace is very important for the balance of our life? Actually, peace is very important for us because the alternative would be chaos and destruction. Without peace our world would be completely different. In this report I am going to write about the importance of peace and how we can achieve it.

Peace is very important for the whole world and we can't live safely without it. First, it is a major factor to avoid wars and conflicts. Second, it saves people and prevents the loss of lives. Third, it stops the destruction of properties and infrastructure. Fourth, it prevents illegal migration. Fifth, when countries live in peace they won't be engaged in conflicts or wars and they can achieve progress and development for humanity. In addition, peace is important for people to live safely and comfortably. They can feel happy and stable and consequently, they will contribute in the development of their countries. Achieving peace is a crucial factor in keeping good and friendly relationships amongst people and nations.

Kuwait has played a crucial and effective role in achieving peace worldwide. First, it has organized many conferences and meeting for that aim. Second, it has taken a main part in solving disagreements among countries and encouraged co-operation between them. Third, it has encouraged dialogue between courtiers to be the alternative of strength and threat. Fourth, the Kuwaiti government has always assured that we should accept others and be tolerant with people from different nationalities and religions. In addition, Kuwaiti media has raised the awareness of people concerning that issue. Moreover, it has raised the awareness about the destructive effects of factors like war, racism and discrimination. Kuwait has also shown a practical side of achieving peace through offering help to a lot of countries all over the world.

Finally, peace is very important for our prosperity and progress. Without peace we can't live in balance or harmony. Kuwait has done a lot to achieve peace between countries. I think that we all should co-operate and exert efforts to achieve peace.
