(القيم الإنسانية وأهميتها)

Did you know that human values are regarded as the basis for human beings to lead a better life. Human values are the principles that one should follow to live a happy and positive life. In this essay, I will talk about the human values that Islam encourages us to have and how these values can help to have a peaceful society.

In Islam, a lot of human values are commanded or encouraged in verses in the Quran and hadith. For example, Islam enjoins Muslims to be kind to both people and animals. Also, Islam teaches human beings to be forgiving. In addition, Islam orders us as Muslims to be honest to others and ourselves. Finally, Islam urges us to respect all people, especially our parents and the elderly in our community.

Human values in Islam can help to have a peaceful society. First, the teachings of Islam invite people to live a peaceful life based on justice. Second, peace is one of the major things in Islam and everything is done in the name of Allah to reach peace. Finally, in Islam, making peace between people is better than charity, fasting, and prayer.

To sum up, human values are the basic traits that are shared by all cultures. They are essential for people to live in peace and harmony.

Plan and write an Expository essay of not less than 14 sentences (160 words) about "Recycling" discussing what the benefits of recycling are and the disadvantages of recycling.

Outline

Introduction:

Hook: Did you know that recycling can make one person's trash another person's treasure?

Background: Recycling is the process of converting waste materials into new materials and objects to be used again

Thesis: In this essay, I will talk about the benefits of recycling and the disadvantages of it.

Body:

Paragraph one

The benefits of recycling

- conserving natural resources
- reducing pollution
- saving energy
- providing jobs for youth

الحفاظ على المصادر الطبيعية
تقليل التلوث
توفير الطاقة
توفير وظائف للشباب

Paragraph two

The disadvantages of recycling

- recycling sites are unhygienic
- products may not be durable
- sometimes expensive
- not widespread

مواقع إعادة التدوير غير صحية
المنتجات غير قوية
أحياناً مكلف
ليس واسع الانتشار

Conclusion: To sum up, getting rid of rubbish is one of the most serious problems facing mankind today. However, we can all make the world a better place by embracing recycling.

(إعادة التدوير: الفوائد والسلبيات)

Did you know that recycling can make one person's trash another person's treasure? Recycling is the process of converting waste materials into new materials and objects to be used again. In this essay, I will talk about the benefits of recycling and the disadvantages of it.

On the one hand, recycling has a lot of pros. For example, recycling can help conserve natural resources that are finite. Also, it can reduce all forms of pollution and protect the ecosystem and wildlife. In addition, it can save energy because making products from recycled materials requires less energy than making them from new raw materials. Finally, it can open up job opportunities for a lot of people seeking jobs.

On the other hand, recycling has a lot of cons. First, recycling sites are commonly unhygienic and unsafe for people working there. Second, most recycled materials are not durable and they don't last long. Third, building a recycling unit center requires a lot of money. Finally, recycling is not widespread and a lot of people have not embraced it.

To sum up, getting rid of rubbish and waste is one of the most serious problems facing mankind today. However, we can all make the world a better place by embracing recycling.

Unit Six

"Healthy ecosystems depend on plant and animal species as their foundations. When a species becomes endangered, it is a sign that the ecosystem is slowly falling apart."

Plan & write an Expository essay of not less than 14 sentences (160 words) explaining the main dangers that face animals and birds worldwide and how to save endangered species.

Outline

تقليل استخدام المبيدات

Conclusion: To sum up, animals are very important for ecological balance. Therefore, we should do our best to save them.

(الحيوانات: الأخطار التي تواجهها وكيف نحميها)

Did you know that there are more than 1,000 endangered species worldwide? Animals provide balance and stability to nature. In this essay, I will talk about the main dangers that face animals and birds worldwide and how to save endangered species.

Animals and birds worldwide are facing a lot of dangers in their natural habitat. For example, desertification and wildfire can lead to animal habitat destruction. In addition, poachers hunt some animals such as tigers and elephants for their valuable fur and tusks. Moreover, it is sometimes difficult for animals to adapt to climate change and a lot of them die. Finally, pollution in seas and oceans is a big threat to the survival of many species of marine wildlife.

In fact, a lot of actions should be taken to save endangered species. First, the government should ban poaching to protect rare animals and birds. Second, the government should found reserves to save animals and help them live in peace. Lastly, farmers should minimize the use of pesticides because they can harm animals or kill them.

To sum up, animals are very important for ecological balance. Therefore, we should do our best to save them.
