Read the following passage carefully, then answer the question below:

Faisal Al-Musawi was a talented footballer at Salmiya Sporting Club and a person who enjoyed a healthy lifestyle. In 2005, his life sadly changed after a car accident that caused him to lose movement completely in his lower body. That major accident put him in a wheelchair for the rest of his life, causing permanent disability. Musawi said that the accident did not stop him from following his dreams, but it taught him how to overcome challenges.

Musawi decided to learn diving to face his fears of the sea. Therefore, in 2009, he started diving with the Kuwait Diving Team as the only disabled member. He worked very hard until he got many diving licenses. In 2018, he became a Guinness World Record holder as the fastest scuba diver in the world. It took him a time of 5 hours and 24 minutes. He broke the last world record, which was set in 2011 by a scuba diver with no disability. Al-Musawi's achievement was encouraging for all people, especially physically challenged ones because it gave them the hope that dreams can be true.
