B. Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

This is my fifth day at the summer camp. Life here is not exactly what I expected. Everyone has to get up at 5:30 a.m. We have to make our beds before our leader comes to check the place. We have breakfast around 6:30 a.m.

In the afternoon, we have free time, so two days ago, I went down to the nearby river to fish for two hours but the only thing I caught was an old shoe. Great catch, Huh? Then when I was trying to hit a bee flying around my head, I fell in the water and lost my fishing line.

In the evening, everyone is asked to do a different job to get dinner ready. Yesterday, I had to cook the hot dogs. Accidentally, I dropped them in the fire and we had beans instead. At night, while trying to find some wooden sticks for the campfire, I got lost in the forest. After an hour, I finally found my way back, but no one of my friends seemed to have realised what had happened to me, they thought I was asleep. Well, today is the last day and tomorrow I'll go home, I've learned that camping is just not for me.

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

Giant pandas are amazing black and white bears. They are found in forests, high up in the mountains of China. Pandas mostly eat "bamboo" which is a type of long grass. The panda likes to eat a lot; it can eat for more than 12 hours.

Pandas are born little but they can grow to be bigger. When baby pandas are born they are pink and about the size of a pencil. They are blind and only open their eyes after six weeks of being born. Mum pandas have one or two babies every two years, and babies stay with their mums for two years before they can go out on their own.

In zoos, old pandas can live for up to 30 years. There are only 1000 pandas in the world now. That's why we need to do all we can to protect these lovely animals. Protecting their main food "bamboo" and keeping their environment clean are important ways to help panda bears.

Panda bears spend the day eating, swimming and sleeping. Zoo keepers usually play with the pandas, feed them and take care of them. People like to watch these amazing animals at the zoo or in the forests where they are rarely found.
