READING COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Do you like helping people? Is it important to you? The philosophy of "people helping people" is important for progress. We must help the weak, the needy and the ignorant. Let's remember the saying: "It is more blessed to give than to receive". Helping People may mean reducing the number of children living in poverty by teaching low-income women how to earn enough money through a good job. Try to offer help first. When people need your help, they'll most likely ask you first, but if you have the chance try to offer help before they ask you. The people who give willingly are the ones who receive the most.

Research shows that those who show more social interest tend to enjoy higher levels of mental health and low stress. Their bodies start to produce a hormone called serotonin which makes you relaxed and gives a sense of satisfaction. There are a lot of benefits of helping others. First, giving comes back to you. When you give, you're more likely to receive. Secondly, it brings you a good feeling. If you spend your time in helping others, you'll likely return home with a smile on your face.

Thirdly, you will be more positive about your own situation. When you help others, you might accept the faults of others and accept your own situation and your own faults. Moreover, giving help spreads positive energy. The truth is that when you make an effort to help others, they may be overcome with positive emotions. One by one, you keep the train of positive energy going along. Finally, helping people makes a difference. Helping helps you to leave your mark on the world. When you help others, you live in their memories as a true difference in their lives.

From a, b, c and d choose the right answer:

1- The word " their "in the last paragraph refers to

a. emotions

b. situations

c. others

d. lives

2-The best title for the text is.....

a. helping children at school

b. the bad effects of helping others

c. visiting people in hospitals

d. the good effects of helping people

3- According to the passage, when helping others,

a. you live in their memories

b. it gives you a bad feeling

c. you'll have a good job.

d. giving never comes back to you.

4-The word receive in the first paragraph means.....

a. give

b. take

c. spread

d. remember

- 5-The writer wants to tell us that.....
- a. helping children at school is positive
 - b. helping others has bad effects
 - c. helping people is good for the giver and the receiver
 - d. the bad effects of helping people is clear

B) Answer the following questions:

6- Mention two benefits of helping others.

SUMMARY MAKING

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the question below:

Google was the first search engine that began considering links. Links are those blue underlined words that take you to other pages when you click on them. Google's search results were much better than their rivals. It wasn't just the great search results that led to Google becoming so well liked. It also had to do with the way that they presented their product. Google's homepage was, and still, clean. There's nothing but the logo, the search box, and a few links. These days Google has its hands in everything from self-driving cars to helping humans live longer. Though they have many other popular products, they will always be best known for their search engine. The Google search engine has changed our lives and our language. It is a standing example that one good idea can change the world.

In FOUR sentences, summarise and paraphrase the previous passage in answer to the following question: (4X15=60 Marks)

Why has Google search engine become so popular?
