Failaka Island

The diagram is a flowchart for a travel project. At the center is a box with a brown border containing four images: three red clay pots, a line drawing of a classical building with columns, a map of Failaka Island with the name 'Failaka Island' written on it, and three ancient coins. Five arrows radiate from this central box to five surrounding rectangular boxes, each with a brown border and a numbered circle (1-5) in its top-left corner. Box 1 (top) is titled 'Where you went' and has a dotted line for notes. Box 2 (left) is titled 'Who you went with' and has a dotted line. Box 3 (bottom-left) is titled 'How you went there' and has a dotted line. Box 4 (bottom-right) is titled 'What you saw there' and has a dotted line. Box 5 (right) is titled 'How you felt' and has a dotted line. In the top right corner, outside the main flowchart, is a small box containing the number '10'.
