When Mike gets to the beach, the first thing he does is to look at the sea and take a deep breath. He watches the sea waves as they go up and down. If the sea is calm, he uses the white or the blue board. If it is rough, he uses the red one. He then runs to the water, feeling the warm sun on his back.

Mike started to practise skiing on the yellow sand. He believes that practice helps him to do better on water. When he is ready, he runs to the water and rides a wave. It feels amazing and exciting. Sometimes, he falls off his board, but he gets back on and tries again. For Mike, waterskiing is more than a hobby. It is a way of life. The sun, sea, and waves are his best friends.
