Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below.

Golden Beach Town is a wealthy neighbourhood in South Florida, U.S. Rich and famous people spend the autumn and winter months from October to March there. In the summer, when temperatures get too hot, they leave town. They hire security guards to protect their homes when they are away.

All the security did not, however, stop a 19-year-old traveller from entering the villa of a rich businessman last year. It happened on Sunday, the fifteenth of January, just before seven in the evening. The young man managed to enter the villa through a second floor bathroom window and climbed in. He looked at what he saw, and stayed in the house for the next three months. He was caught, despite the guards, maids and gardeners who were working in the house and on the grounds every day.

While he was staying in the house, the stranger ate everything in the refrigerator and freezer and cupboard, ran up a $7,000 telephone bill and wore or stole men's clothes in the closets. When the owner returned at the end of the month, he found his uninvited guest fast asleep in his bed—just like a little child! The young man is now a guest in a Florida prison.
